

The Daily Gazetteer.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4 1737.

No. 658.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, with the Paris Letter dated on Wednesday last.

It says, That the Loss sustained there, by the late Fire at the Hotel Dieu, amounts to above 200,000 Crowns; that among others who were bury'd in the Ruins, were the Lady Governess of the Monastery of St. Eloy, a young Nun, and 2 Grenadiers of the French Guards, of whom they found nothing but their Caps, and that there are about 20 Persons wounded; in which Number are two Mendicant Fryars, and an Engineer.

Last Week the Lieutenant-General of the Police caused a Seizure to be made, at the Lodgings of an Englishman, at Burgundy-House, in the Suburb of St. Germain, of Part of the Statutes, Utensils, Tools, Figures, Apparel, &c. of a Society of Free Masons. There have been great Storms of Hail at Bourges and Rheims. At the former a great many Persons were kill'd in the neighbouring Fields, and at the latter all the Windows were broke, to the Value of above 60,000 Livres; so that the Damage done to the Cathedral alone, is not less than 1000 Crowns.

Last Week the Parliament assembled about the Curé, or Parson, of Mongeron, who has been committed to the Bastille, for having presented the King with the Book of the Miracles of M. le Paris, and made a Deputation to the King, consisting of 7 Presidents, 10 Counsellors of the Grand Chamber, 10 of the Court of Inquests, and 4 of that of the Revenues, who went to Versailles to make their Remonstrances to the King upon that Head.

The King's Answer to the Deputation.

'I was resolv'd to punish a Piece of Disrespect to me, which is Personal. If I proceed farther, I will let you know my Intentions. Then the Chancellor made Answer, as follows: 'The King has order'd me to add, to what he has just now acquainted you with, that the Time did not permit the Observation of the common Form, in the Punishment of so rash an Enterprize.

The Count de Chabannes, a Major of the French Guards, continues every Sunday Morning to exercise that Regiment in the Plain des Sablons, by new Evolutions shorter than those now in Practice when they are to face an Enemy; so that by this Discipline the Soldiers are excus'd from kneeling down as fast as every Rank gives Fire.

M. de Beaujeu Bishop of Mirepoix, is dead at Alby, aged 33.

Two Gentlemen are lately taken up at the Isle of St. Louis, who kept a private Printing-Press.

They write from Lizieux, that a rich Grocer of that Town, is committed to Prison, who to better the Fortune of his Daughter that was courted by two Great Gentlemen, was so inhuman as to murder his Son as he was in Bed, by knocking him on the Head with a Hammer; and that the Mother who was an Accomplice, is likewise apprehended; but that the Daughter having no Hand in that base Villany, was not molested.

'Tis reported, that the Marquis D'Antin, Vice-Admiral, has with 3 of his Ships attack'd and taken the famous Rover of Barbary, who by his continual Cruises and Piracies disturb'd the Levant Trade.

The Baron de Schmerling, the Emperor's Minister at Paris, receiv'd an Express from Vienna, last Monday Sc'nnight, with Advice, that the Imperial Army, after having seized two Castles on the Frontiers of Walachia, took the Hospodar's Wife and two Children Prisoners, and reduced that Province, of which the said Prince acknowledg'd the Emperor Sovereign.

Letters of the 14th ult. O. S. from Vienna signify, that the Duke of Lorraine is recalled from the Army, and expected at that City in a few Weeks, on Account of the Death of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, whose Dominions are now devolv'd to him; and that for this Reason the Court has sent an Express to the Archduchess, the Governess of the Austrian Netherlands, with Orders to continue the Regency at Brussels. 'Tis thought the new Grand Duke will go himself to take Possession of Tuscany, and that the Archduchess his Consort will accompany him: Mean Time, his Brother Prince Charles will stay behind in the Army.

Complaint has been made at Vienna, on the Part of the King of Great Britain, against the Imperial General, the Prince de Lobkowitz, for his having caused the Cannon to be fir'd at Parma, when the Pretender's eldest Son was there.

The Report that the famous Count de Bonneval was in Bosnia, is contradicted; there being certain Advices from Constantinople, that he is indisposed, and will not go into the Field.

According to Letters of the 7th ult. from Belgrade, Provisions were incredibly scarce in the Army; and that by reason of the great Floods the Soldiers were oblig'd to march up to their Knees in Water.

Those of the 15th from the Danube say, the States of Austria have already remitted to the Town-house of Vienna, the Money assesse'd upon them for the War against the Turks, which amounts to 500,000 Florins, whereof Vienna alone has furnish'd 190,000; and that for all this, 'tis resolv'd at Court, to establish a Poll-Tax throughout all the Emperor's Dominions.

They write from the Imperial Camp at Barakin, that Widin being entirely overflow'd by the Danube, the Army is preparing to attack Nissa.

Letters of the 9th from Petersburg say, they had just then received News, by the Way of Bender, that the Garison of Oczakow hung out the White Flag on the 29th of May, and desired a reasonable Capitulation; but was refus'd any other Terms than to surrender Prisoners of War.

S I R,

I Beg Admission of a few Lines to congratulate you and the Publick, upon the Second Edition of the Cure of Deism, or Mediatorial Scheme, &c. just published, at a Time when Deism and Infidelity are making their utmost Efforts. If the first Edition met with a favourable Reception from the Publick, and, according to common Report, was well esteem'd by the best Judges; this is like to give more general Satisfaction, as being much perfecter with respect to Corrections, and more valuable on account of some Additions, which considerably strengthen the main Argument of the Book, as I find by casting my Eye over it. To speak my Sentiments impartially, the Mediatorial Scheme, or Method of representing Christianity, seems to be that Union which teacheth all Things Best in that most excellent Religion. As the Author has drawn it from the manifest Nature of Things, as well as the most obvious Meaning of Scripture, it is universally intelligible, without the Help of Metaphysics, and no less amiable, as it supersedes all Occasion of Dispute. By viewing the old substantial Things of Christianity in that new Light or Connection, with the Religion of Nature, they appear another Thing in Reasonableness and all Excellencies in the Eyes of those who frequently, but cursorily, view'd them before. And there is a further Benefit to be reap'd at this Time, from the Judgment and Temper that is shewn in preserving the true Notion of the Lord's Supper in its just Medium between some Extremes. Some Things discover themselves as New, a new Use being found for them; others better understood than before: And from a better Understanding, all Christians will be naturally excited to a greater Admiration of the Divine Beauty of the Scheme of their Redemption; and, with intelligent Praise, as well as holy Manners, be induc'd to love and adore God more and more for its Benefits; to extol his Wisdom and Goodness for the stupendous Harmony between the Royalty and Righteousness of the Rectoral Justice, and the Divine Mercy of Heaven so plainly to be seen, and so kindly reach'd out unto us; and dispose all those, who have any Prejudices against Christianity, to a closer Attention to its Reasonableness in all Respects. For indeed the Scheme seems fully to deserve the Character that has been given of it, viz. 'The real Charms and Beauty of it are manifest in the Display of Truth in a plain Dress; the enduring Solidity of it in the apparent Nature of Things in concert with Revelation, without any Art, or pious Fraud; and the Use of it is conspicuous from the Importance of the Subject, which being what is or can be the only true Religion, is the very greatest Concern in this World. In short, this way of deducing Moral or Religious Truth from the Moral Nature of God, and Man; and adjusting its Operations by the infallible Direction of Ends and Means, which have their Connexion and Application founded in the one Mediator between God and Man, gives as much Satisfaction to the Mind, in the most important Affair, as Sir Isaac Newton's Principia in the Discovery of natural Truths; and may, it is hoped, in time be as effectual to bring over the Deists to Christianity, as the other was to change the Name of Atheist into Deist. The Appendix is an Answer to the Moral Philosopher; a new Sort of refined Deists, as well as a most subtle Adversary to Christianity. It does not meddle with the trifling Objections of that Philosopher, but undertakes the harder and most necessary Task of answering the false Reasoning of those Objections of his, which strike at the Root of Christianity, as well as exposing some of the manifold Inconsistencies and peculiar Novelties of this new Projector, and audacious Underminer of old Foundations. But what is most to the Purpose, the Reader will find all his Socini-Deistical Doubts and Subtleties fully solv'd, and completely obviated in the Two Volumes and this Appendix.

CHEMISTRY,	LAW,	RHETORICK,
DIVINITY,	LOGICK,	SCULPTURE,
GARDENING,	MATHEMATICKS,	SURGERY, &c.
GRAMMAR,	MECHANICKS,

Are not only fully explain'd, but accented on their proper Syllables, to prevent a vicious Pronunciation; and mark'd with initial Letters, to denote the Part of Speech, to which each Word peculiarly belongs. To which is prefixed, a Compendious English Grammar, with general Rules for the ready Formation of one Part of Speech from another; by the due Application whereof, such as understand English only, may be able to write as correctly and elegantly, as those who have been some Years conversant in the Latin, Greek, &c. Languages. Together with a Supplement, of the proper Names of the most noted Kingdoms, Provinces, Cities, Towns, Rivers, &c. throughout the known World. As also, of the most celebrated Emperors, Kings, Queens, Priests, Poets, Philosophers, Generals, &c. whether Jewish, Pagan, Mahometan, or Christian; but more especially such as are mentioned either in the Old or New Testament.

The whole Alphabetically digested, and accented in the same Manner, and for the same Purpose, as the preceding Part: being collected for the Use of such, as have but an imperfect Idea, of the English Orthography.

Originally begun by the late Reverend Mr. Thomas Dyche, School-Master at Stratford le Bow, Author of the Guide to the English Tongue, the Spelling Dictionary, &c. And now finished by William Pardon, Gent.

Printed for Richard Ware, at the Bible and Sun in Warwick-Lane, Amen-Corner. Price 6s.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies for its transcendent Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent cellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Role and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handfomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, and delicately white.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handfomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly remove away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly, for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging, resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of a Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whence of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and the brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impostitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3s. 6d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.

For the P A L S Y,

An infallible and speedy Cure, by one internal Medicine, being a most pleasant Chymical Tincture, to be taken in Drops,

WHICH gives instant Relief in any

Paralytick or Nervous Indispositions, proceeding from what Cause soever; and also in all Weaknesses, or Decays of Nature, whether from Old Age, or occasioned by continued Debility of Body, or any Irregularities of Living, such as late Drinking, &c. whereby Nature is sorely weakened, and thus in a Manner quite spoiled.

This infallible Chymical Tincture is endued with such specific Qualities, that it instantly enters the Nerves, the principal Seat of all Complaints of a Paralytick Kind, restores natural Heat and Strength to a Degree consistent with a good State of Health; and in a very little time perfectly cures all Paralytick Weaknesses of the longest standing; and also the severest or worst Effects of it either on old or young, such as shaking or trembling of the Limbs, Numbness, or even Debility on any Part of the Body; as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and all Ages, before this Publication.

As for any Weaknesses or Decays of Nature, by Age or otherwise, this Tincture has not its Equal; it is so gentle in Operation, as not to give the least Disturbance in taking, but in its Effects so strong and prevalent, that all Decayed Weaknesses of Nature, whether Paralytick, Convulsive, or any other Indispositions attending the Head and Nerves, are instantly relieved, and daily mended; so as in a very little Time a perfect Cure is accomplished.

It is exceeding pleasant to take, safe in Operation, and perfectly agreeable to the Stomach and Palate, greatly helps Digestion, causes a good Appetite, revives and strengthens the whole Human Frame so entirely, as that nothing in the World was ever yet known to come near it, for the safe and regular Cure of all Paralytick, Convulsive, or other Nervous Indispositions.

It is sold by special Order of the Author, only at Mr. Markham's Toyshop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, for 3s. 6d. each Bottle.
